

KENNESAW STATE
UNIVERSITY

30th Annual KSU Conference on
Literature for Children and Young Adults
“Better Together: Sharing Literacy Tools and Strategies”
Presented Digitally

October 12, 2021 – Children’s Literature Day
Featured Speaker: Author Minh Le
<http://minhlebooks.com/>

October 13, 2021 – Young Adult Literature Day
Featured Speaker: Samira Ahmed
<https://samiraahmed.com>

Submit Presentation Proposals by July 1, 2021 via:
Conference on Literature for Children and Young Adult Proposal Submission
Decisions will be announced August 15, 2021

Registration open through October 1, 2021

We accept any literacy focused proposals. Some strands this year include vocabulary instruction, PBL, assessment, and writing workshop. We strongly encourage submissions from students.

- *Featured presentations by Cobb County teachers and instructional leaders on phonics and guided reading; PBL; and comprehension
- *Featured sessions from KSU Literacy faculty on vocabulary development, writing workshop, and read aloud
- *Featured sessions from KSU Tech Experts on learning technology as a lunch & learn

To register for conference go to: Conference Registration

To submit a proposal go to: Proposal Portal

To register for a vendor booth go to: Vendor Registration